

Beautiful fall leaves

God made leaves so beautiful and green, but when they change from green to red, yellow, and orange, they take on a whole new beauty. It happens just before winter in the time called fall. This is when the leaves begin to rest from making food for the trees. For a few months, they put on a show, because soon winter will come, and they will all be covered with snow.